ORDER:

The Government of India have since forwarded to this Government the design of the State Emblem together with the motto as finally approved by them. The difference in the new design is that the crescent for the National Motto has been dispensed with, and the motto has been printed horizontally (without border lines) below the emblem A copy each of the new design is forwarded to the Superintendent, Government Press, Madras and the General Superintendent, Public Works Workshop, Madras for reference. They are requested to adopt the new design of inscribing the motto in all the Stationery, Seals etc to be supplied in future to all Courts officials and departments of Government and on the Fort St.George Gazette and all other publications of Government where the Madras Government State Emblem is permitted to be used.
